

Group Sales Memo

THE RELIGION THING

by Renee Calarco
directed by Douglas Hall

DESCRIPTION

Mo and Brian are a picture-perfect DC couple: they're smart, they're witty, and they have a beautifully remodeled kitchen. But when Mo's best friend Patti announces she's found Jesus and is putting her own career on hold, Mo must take a closer look at the harder truths surrounding her own marriage. A comedy about relationships, faith, and the fine line between compromise and regret.

"The Religion Thing" was nominated for a Helen Hayes/Charles MacArthur Award for Best New Play in 2013.

THE CAST

Curran Connor, Katharine McLeod, Danielle, O'Farrell, Jamie Geiger, and featuring Project Y Founding Co-Artistic Director, Andrew William Smith

Dates: June 18th-August 1
Schedule: Wednesday, Thursday, Friday at 8pm (Also, Tues July 1 at 8pm)
Location: The Cell Theatre, 338 W. 23rd Street, New York, NY 10011
Length: Estimated at 90 minutes
Intermission: None
Seating: General Admission

GROUP PRICES AND RESERVATION INFORMATION

All group tickets are $20 each for groups of 8 or more (Reg $25 with a $1.87 service fee per ticket). There is no ticket fee. Payment must be made in full 7 days prior to the performance date.

CONTACT

For more information or to make a reservation, please contact Michole Biancosino at micholeb@gmail.com. For more information about Project Y, please visit www.projectytheatre.org

